

Codicil form

We recommend that you seek advice from your solicitor when making or amending your will. If you already have one and wish to amend it to include Classics for All as a beneficiary, you can complete the codicil form provided overleaf or discuss your intention with your solicitor. This is a written amendment to your will for a gift of a specific amount or item(s) and needs to be signed, dated and witnessed by two adult witnesses who should not be an executor, spouse or beneficiary of your will.
