

OUR COMMITMENT TO SUPPORTERS

Classics for All would not be able to continue training and supporting teachers to introduce and sustain Classics in state schools without the generosity and support of our donors.

This meaningful support is integral to our day-to-day operations and long-term growth. As a charity, we need to actively fundraise to encourage support. We are responsible and ethical fundraisers, registered with the Charity Commission and the Fundraising Regulator.

Should you decide to contribute to our work, we will:

- Process your donation securely and promptly.
- Acknowledge your gift within seven working days.
- Publicly acknowledge your generosity, if you so wish, on our Donor Recognition List.
- Keep you updated on our work, in line with your preferences.
- Not ask you for further contributions, if you have told us that your circumstances have changed or that you do not want to be asked again.

If you ever have any comments or complaints about our work or how we treat our donors, please contact us by:

- Email: contact@classicsforall.org.uk / sacha@classicsforall.org.uk (Head of Giving) or jo@classicsforall.org.uk (Chief Executive)
- Telephone: 020 7848 4741
- Post: Classics for All, D1 North Wing, King's College (Strand), London WC2R 2LS

Your feedback will be handled and investigated promptly, fairly and escalated if required. As long as you have provided your contact details, we will acknowledge any complaint within 10 working days.

Hearing your feedback helps us to develop, so thank you for taking the time to share your thoughts.
